ABOUT INDUSTRIAS VALVERDE S.A. (INVALSA)

Invalsa is a family-owned and operated specialty commodities sourcing, exporting and importing company, co-headquartered in La Paz, Bolivia, and Boston, USA.

Our American operation is called the Green Valley Trading Company.

Our business model is unique: since we are co-based in the Bolivia and the US, we have long-term relationships and partnerships with smallholder producers growing commodities including coffee, cacao, and quinoa in some of the most exotic and highest-altitude farmland in the world, in the heights of the Andes Mountains. We pay above-market-rate prices for above-market quality standards, year after year.

Our producer partners in Bolivia are indigenous families who cultivate an average of only two hectares each.
